MINIONS

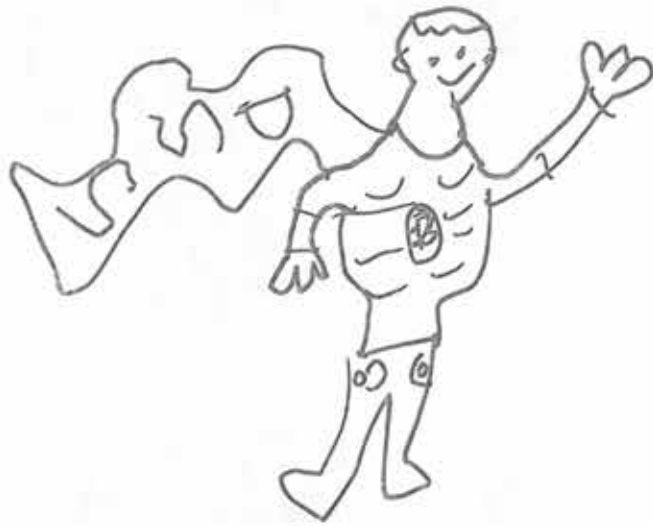

Dear Dr. Burt,

We hope you enjoy this comic. You are our life superhero. You transplanted all of us the summer of 2016. We formed an or group in March of that year so we could get to know each other, meet up in person once we arrived Chicago, encourage each other, ask for and provide assistance with anything from grocery store runs to laundry while in-patient, coordinate card games in the patient exercise room, schedule visits with those in-patient and so much more.

You brought us together, and thanks to you, have become a family! After donning plastic gowns, yellow masks, and glasses while in-patient, nicknamed ourselves "The Mighty Minions." We kept in touch, and many of us have tried to coordinate our follow-up visits around the same time we just wanted to express our gratitude to you for your tireless dedication, compassion, and unfathomable work ethic over the years!

With endless love and appreciation,

"The Mighty Minions"
