

WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Presents:

*Wayne State University Multiple Sclerosis Symposium:
From Bench to Bedside
Saturday, November 17, 2007
At
The Townsend Hotel, Birmingham, Michigan*

Sponsored By:

*The Multiple Sclerosis Center
Department of Neurology
Wayne State University School of Medicine*

Support for this event is by an unrestricted educational grant from

Teva Neuroscience, USA

Wayne State University Multiple Sclerosis Center 2007 Annual Symposium:
From Bench to Bedside

Saturday November 17, 2006
The Townsend Hotel, Birmingham, Michigan

- 7:00 am to 8:00 am Breakfast
- 8:00 am to 8:20 am Introductory Comments
Omar Khan, MD, Moderator
Professor of Neurology,
Director Multiple Sclerosis Program &
Neuroimaging Laboratory
Wayne State University School of Medicine, Detroit
- 8:20 am to 9:00 am Current Concepts of Disability in Multiple Sclerosis
Bruce Trapp, PhD
Chairman, Department of Neurosciences
Lerner Research Institute
The Cleveland Clinic Foundation, Cleveland
- 9:00 am to 9:40 am Tissue Repair and Injury in Multiple Sclerosis
John Kamholz, MD, PhD
Professor of Neurology,
Center for Molecular Medicine and Genetics
Wayne State University School of Medicine, Detroit
-
- 9:40 am to 10:00 am Break Break
-
- 10:00 am to 10:40 Benign MS & Disability Progression in MS
Sean Pittock, MD
Assistant Professor,
Departments of Neurology and Laboratory
Medicine & Pathology
Mayo Clinic, Rochester
- 10:40 am to 11:20 am New Generation of MS Therapeutics
Bruce Cree, MD, PhD, MCR
Assistant Professor of Neurology
University of California, San Francisco

11:20 am to 12:00 pm

Autologous Hematopoietic Stem Cell Transplant Therapy in Multiple Sclerosis

Richard Burt, MD

Chief, Division of Immunotherapy for Autoimmune Diseases,

Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine, Chicago

12:00 pm to 1:00 pm

Q & A

Lunch will be provided